floor in one lounge room, which has a wood heater and splendid views from the expansive windows.

#The property dates back to 1871, has outbuildings with slate and shingle roofs. Stately Blackwoods, Maples and ornamental trees create a sense of a time gone by and where time passes at a slower pace,

The fertile land was a dairy in years past, is flat to slightly undulating, interspersed with clusters of Blackwood and Tea trees, the Back Creek meanders through the property, complimented by several dams.

Without doubt, representing excellent value, a rare acreage at an affordable price.
