☐ Solid staffing structure with two supervisors on the floor

☐ Long lease in place with a supportive landlord

The venue presents clear upside potential. Introducing a refreshed food menu, weekly specials, enhanced marketing, and stronger digital advertising could significantly increase revenue and patronage.

Upstairs space provides an opportunity for further development or creative use (subject to approvals), giving the incoming operator room to expand the offering.

Located in Launceston, this is a genuine opportunity to secure a pub with an established customer base, consistent trading history, and operational systems already in place.

Anyone looking to add a gaming venue to their existing business portfolio or an entrepreneur looking for financial freedom and looking for a start.
